Sharp's Comment on media reports regarding speculations on Sharp's LCD business

On and after April 4, there were several speculative media reports regarding possible spin-off of LCD business and funding from Innovation Network Corporation of Japan (INCJ). However, these media reports are not based on Sharp's announcement.

We are currently considering various possibilities for fundamental structural reforms including LCD business, but there are no fact of specific decisions made at this time.

The new Medium-Term Management Plan is currently reviewed and will be announced around May this year.
