Medium-Term Management Plan for Fiscal 2015 through 2017

“Establish the basis for stable profitability by execution of fundamental restructuring”

In this plan, we set three basic strategies at its core; (1) Shift management resources to “advantageous market and fields”, (2) Exit closed innovation and aggressively utilize alliance, and (3) Enforce executions by innovating governance systems.

In addition, we also set and carried out by the entire company five main plans to achieve “Recovery and Growth”; (1) Restructuring of the current business portfolio, (2) Improving the profitability of LCD business, (3) Expanding overseas businesses focusing on the ASEAN market, (4) Reducing fixed costs by introducing all-Sharp cost restructuring innovations, and (5) Improving financial position.

With these efforts, we returned to profit on the year ended March 2014, clearing the target set for the sales and operating income.

However, Sharp recorded large deficits for the year ended March 2015, due to lack of correspondence to the deterioration in business environment of LCD TVs in America and energy solution business, as well as lack of foresight in market changes, inadequacy to correspond to price decline, inadequacy in marketing for small- and medium-size LCDs, as well as recording of the allowance for the price difference in long term contract of polysilicon materials used in solar panels, and write-down of the inventories of small- and medium-size LCDs to improve earnings structure.

For the downturn in performance of our business, we self-evaluate the impact of the following factors; (1) Weakness in adapting to the changes with speedy action, (2) Delay of launching business in growing areas, (3) Weakened cost competitiveness, (4) Insufficient corporate governance and business management.
In order to overcome this situation, Sharp has established a Medium-Term Management Plan for Fiscal 2015 through 2017 to “establish the basis for stable profitability by execution of fundamental restructuring” as its corporate strategy. This plan was resolved at our board member meeting held today. The overview of the plan is as stated below.

Sharp will continue to enforce further restructuring in response to the changes in the business environment.

For the detail of this Medium-Term Management Plan, please refer to the attached presentation material “Medium-Term Management Plan for Fiscal 2015 through 2017”.

I. Re-establishment of the Financial Basis

Sharp will reinforce capital, damaged by the structural reorganization, with the issuance of preferred shares.

II. Basic Strategy of the Medium-Term Management Plan

Sharp will target to “establish the bases for stable profitability by execution of fundamental restructuring” by execution of the following three key strategies.

1. Re-organizing Business Portfolio

Sharp will re-build its current corporate structure including 2 business groups and 8 business units into 5 companies to adapt to clients and business criteria in order to re-organize business portfolio and improve profitability.
2. Executing Reduction of Fixed Cost

Sharp plans to execute fundamental cost restructuring foreseeing improvement in future profitability. The restructuring will include innovation to business schemes and business bases, personnel reduction by voluntary retirement in Japan and downsizing of overseas bases, streamlining headquarter, and urgent measures to reduce personnel cost in Japan, etc.

3. Reorganizing Corporate Structure and Strengthening Corporate Governance

(1) Introduction and Aim of Company-System

Sharp intends to introduce company-system from October 2015 to balance the enforcement of corporate section management and establishment of each company’s independence to realize disciplined and speedy management. Each company will target (1) management focusing on B/S, P/L and C/F, (2) Integrated framework covering production to sales, (3) Flat structure to adapt promptly to market changes.

(2) Fundamental Changes in the Personnel Affairs

For the recovery of the company, in order to provide the opportunity to enhance careers and working conditions worth working for to the employees with important roles, and to create robust corporate structure with competitive edge in each business field, Sharp intends to make changes in the personnel affairs as follows:

a) Review of class and reward systems
b) Provide appropriate working conditions
c) Thorough merit-based promotion system
d) Change to more flat and simple structure

(3) Renewal of Management

We will renew our management to accomplish Medium-Term Management Plan.
